Behind the Scenes with The ACE Foundation

Since the ACE Foundation began funding ACE Scholarship Awards in 2003, Kids' Chance of Pennsylvania has awarded 22 grants to outstanding students for up to four years of their academic careers. ACE Scholars have attended a variety of prestigious schools including Boston University, the University of Pittsburgh, New York University and Duquesne University.

We asked Eden Kratchman, Executive Director of the ACE Charitable Foundation, to provide our readers with insights into ACE Group's selection of Kids' Chance of Pennsylvania for inclusion in its philanthropic efforts. More

Join us for the 19th Anniversary of the Ray Ness Memorial Golf Tournament. With the help of our golfers and many sponsors, this has become a premier event. Since this tournament can only accommodate 216 golfers, registration is FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED. Your place is determined by the date your entry fee is received.

Tournament sponsorship opportunities are available. For your donation, you will receive a large sign displayed throughout the tournament, an ad in our tournament program, and the satisfaction of knowing your money is being designated to a worthwhile cause.

Student Spotlight

"I would like to sincerely thank Kids' Chance and the ACE Charitable Foundation for the scholarship I was awarded for the 2009-2010 academic year. I am entering my junior year as a P1 pharmacy student at the University of Pittsburgh Pharmacy School. This scholarship is making it possible for me to obtain my goal of becoming a pharmacist."
